TOGETHER WE RISE

The National Citizens Inquiry held the first citizen-led, citizen-funded national inquiry into Canada's COVID-19 response.

-  Hear the uncensored voices of Canadians and independent scientific, medical and legal experts.
-  Hear veteran investigative reporters from CBC, CTV and Global News testify under oath that Canadians were not getting the whole truth from the mainstream news media.
-  Investigate government's COVID-19 policies in a fair and impartial manner.
-  Evaluate the social and economic costs of government's COVID-19 response.
